

English and maths - Online courses

Are you looking for something to occupy your mind whilst staying safe at home?

Would you like to improve your English or maths skills and gain missing qualifications?

Maybe you're baffled and bewildered by your child's increasingly complicated homework and feel this would help?

Adult Learning and Skills Service are now offering online Functional Skills English and maths courses starting week commencing 20th April 2020

These courses will lead to recognised qualifications up to Level 2 (GCSE equivalent) and will also be useful to those wishing to join our GCSE courses in the new academic year

For more information phone 07977148907 or 07583032704

Your call is very important to us but phones are very busy at the moment so please do leave a voicemail with your name and number and we will return your call as soon as possible. Alternatively both these numbers accept text messages.

or email: south.adultlearning@northyorks.gov.uk